

Engraving of the interior of the Hagia Sophia, Istanbul, showing the nave and the central dome area. The image is a detailed black and white engraving, likely from a 19th-century travelogue or architectural record. It captures the grandeur of the Byzantine architecture, with its massive piers, arches, and decorative elements. The presence of people in the scene emphasizes the scale of the building.

شمال طرفه واقع استلک قوسه داران اسرار